

Feild Named to Legislative Council Again

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas House this morning elected members to the Legislative Council and the Joint Auditing Committee for the next biennium.

Twelve members to each committee were elected in six caucuses based on the number of congressional districts in the state at the time the two out-of-session arms of the legislature were created.

Elected to the Legislative Council were Reps. W.H. "Bill" Thompson of Marked Tree, Jim Shaver of Wynne, from the 1st District, John Paul Capps of Searcy and Jesse Hayes of Pocahontas from the 2nd District, Mrs. Bernice Kizer of Fort Smith and Joe Hamilton of Harrison from the 3rd District, Talbot Feild Jr. of Hope and Ode Maddox of Oden from the 4th District, B.D. "Doug" Brandon of Little Rock and Loid Sadler of Morrilton from the 5th District, and G.W. "Buddy" Turner of Pine Bluff and Ray S. Smith Jr. of Hot Springs from the 6th District.

The members also elected at least two alternates for each of those 12 members.

Elected by congressional district caucus to the Joint Auditing Committee were Reps. Walter Day of Blytheville and James Linder of West Helena from the 1st District, John A. "Buddy" Sink of Newport and Cecil Alexander of Heber Springs from the 2nd District, Charles Stewart of Fayetteville and Mike Womack of Mulberry from the 3rd District, Harry Colay of Magnolia and Robert Goodwin of Hampton from the 4th District, Leon Holsted of North Little Rock and Charles Boyce of Dardanelle from the 5th District, and Gean McDonald of Sheridan and Bill Foster of England from the 6th District.

The House also elected four at-large members to each group.

Elected to the council by acclamation were Reps. Joel Ledbetter of Little Rock, Lacy Landers of Benton and John Miller of Melbourne.

Rep. B.G. Hendrix of Fort Smith won the fourth position at-large in an election. Hendrix received 39 votes, Bill Nicholson of Osceola received 33 votes and George Nowotny of Fort Smith 18. Hendrix then defeated Nicholson in a runoff, but the results were not announced.

Nowotny, a Republican, served on the council during the last biennium on appointment by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller. However, the legislature in 1967 adopted a resolution to cease the practice of having the governor appoint one member of each legislative chamber to the council, effective this session.

Rockefeller's Senate appointee was Russell Elrod, a Democrat of Siloam Springs. Elrod lost to a Republican, Jim Caldwell of Rogers, in a bid for reelection last year.

However, Nowotny was one of three members elected by acclamation as at-large members to the Joint Auditing Committee. The others were Clovis Bryant of Van Buren and James O. Stevens of Pine Bluff.

phase more thrusts at places where pacification has taken hold and the Viet Cong reportedly have lost ground.

U.S. officials acknowledge the enemy will make some gains but they contend the price will be too high and that the overall objective of undermining support for the Saigon government will fail.

Among other things, it is expected that the enemy will attempt to stimulate popular uprisings. But authorities say they are reasonably confident that, as in the Tet offensive last winter, no uprisings will occur.

Officials here estimate that about 79 per cent of South Vietnam's population is in what they call reasonably secure areas. If the enemy should reduce this by 10 per cent, it is felt he will have made significant impact.

Sources here say the brunt of the fighting is being borne by the North Vietnamese, but that they are trying to make it look as though it is mainly an operation of the Viet Cong.

There has been relatively little offensive activity in the rice growing delta where the Viet Cong, rather than the North Vietnamese, are dominant.

Military men would like to see some selective bombing of North Vietnam in retaliation for the offensive, which they regard as a blatant violation of understandings under which the United States halted all air strikes

Saigon Brings Up Attacks at Peace Talks

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH Associated Press Writer PARIS (AP) — On the eve of President Nixon's visit to France, North Vietnam and the Viet Cong used the Paris peace talks today as a forum to assail him. The Viet Cong accused the President of "black and vile intentions."

Tran Bui Kiem, the Viet Cong National Liberation Front's representative, and Ambassador Xuan Thuy, the Hanoi delegate, accused Nixon of jockeying for military position in South Vietnam aiming at a "position of strength" at the talks.

Vietnam is high on the President's agenda on his 48-hour stop in France beginning Friday. He will confer with his delegation Sunday, and probably also with the South Vietnamese. His visit could have an impact on the course of these talks.

The United States and the South Vietnamese, at this six session of the full-scale talks, protested the renewed enemy shelling of cities in South Vietnam.

The Saigon delegate, Ambassador Pham Dang Lam claimed that because of the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese, the "search for peace has not progressed one single step."

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge warned the other side that "The consequences of these attacks are your responsibility," and that the shelling suggested an unwillingness to look toward peaceful settlement.

The United States contends there was an agreement at the time President Johnson stopped all bombing of North Vietnam Nov. 1 and this is being violated by renewed shelling of the cities in the South.

In his prepared statement, Thuy claimed that the agreement on cessation of the bombing "was completely un-conditional."

Ilon, GM said.

The exhaust problem first came to light when Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt and their niece, Susan Koehler, were found dead in their 1968 Chevrolet Impala near Heber City, Utah, last July. Several days later, Mrs. Charles Dunaway was found asphyxiated in a 1966 Impala near Baton Rouge, La.

A spokesman said GM investigators discovered the Hunt car had been involved in an accident causing extensive damage to the front of the car's undercarriage as well as the front of the exhaust system. The car was driven 800 miles the next day without repair to the damaged exhaust system, GM said.

But in the case involving Mrs. Dunaway, exhaust fumes apparently leaked from a rusty tail pipe through one of several openings in the trunk of the car and then into the passenger compartment, the firm said.

A spokesman said no litigation currently is pending in either of the two death cases, although two suits have been filed in two of about 30 complaints of dizziness and drowsiness, allegedly as a result of exhaust fumes.

The spokesman said there had been 48 complaints of failure of a plastic carburetor part which could result in sticking accelerators and cars going out of control. One minor accident has been reported as a result of such failure, the firm said.

"The very few cases of possible defects which prompted the recall decision are clearly exceptions," GM said, "but the General Motors concern for safety and idea of excellence tolerates not even an exception."

The recall campaign covers Chevrolets of Biscayne, Bel Air, Impala, and Caprice models from 1965 through 1968 for correction of possible exhaust fume leakage, and 1968 and 1969 Chevrolets, Pontiacs, Oldsmobiles, Buicks Cadillacs and GMC trucks with four barrel Quadra-Jet carburetors for replacement of a plastic cam.

woman's life... May I help with your wedding plans? I have lovely wedding invitations, announcements, reception and thank you cards...

The mail continued to pour in for the next week or so. Included in the deluge were numerous brochures from resorts that specialize in honeymoons.

I was beginning to think that the only people who read the wedding announcements are insurance salesmen and merchants, when I got a letter from an old college friend who now works for a bank.

"Heartiest congratulations," he said. "Great news. Hope to meet the young lady soon."

I paused for a moment and reflected on the nice gesture this old friend was making. It made all crass phone calls and tasteless mail seem worth it. I continued reading.

"I imagine that you both are pretty excited about the wedding," he said. "I don't mean to jar you off Cloud 9, but there are things that you should be thinking about. Why don't we get together for lunch some day this week, and I can tell you about my bank's investment program. I would be glad to handle personally..."

Diamond Mine Is Sold at Murfreesboro

MURFREESBORO Ark. (AP) — The world-famous Crater of Diamonds and the Arkansas Mine, another diamond property, were sold Wednesday to General Earth Miners of Dallas, Tex.

Howard A. Miller, whose family owned the diamond crater since 1912, announced the sale. He did not disclose the purchase price for the property involved.

Mrs. Ethel Wilkinson of Loganport, Ind., owned the diamond mine operation sold to GEM, he said.

Miller and his wife, who operated the Crater of Diamonds, charged $1.50 admission and allow diamond searchers to keep any gems they found under five carats. The finders shared in the proceeds from larger stones.

The largest stone found by a tourist was cut into an 8.27 carat Marquise-shaped gem named the Star of Arkansas. It was valued when it was found in 1965 at between $18,000 and $20,000.

The largest diamond ever found in the United States was picked up here in 1964. It was 40.23 carats. A 12.42 gem called the Uncle Sam cut from this stone was exhibited at the Museum of Natural History in New York in 1960 and was valued by jewelers at $250,000.

Miller said he did not know what the new owners planned to do with the property but it was reported the firm planned to start a commercial mining operation.

The milk bottle was invented by Dr. Harvey D. Thatcher of Potsdam, N.Y., in 1884.

Human Body More Valuable

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — A Northwestern University biochemist said Wednesday that because of inflation the present value of an average human body's chemical content is $3.50. In 1936 it was only 98 cents.

Donald T. Forman, an assistant professor in the university's medical school, based his updated evaluation on a body's complete chemical composition: oxygen 65 per cent, carbon 18 per cent, hydrogen 10 per cent, nitrogen 3 per cent, calcium 1.5 per cent, phosphorus 1 per cent, and trace elements, including gold and silver, 1.5 per cent.

Didn't Register for Draft, Gets 3 Years

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Michael Allen Mattin, 18, of Little Rock was sentenced Wednesday to three years in prison after being found guilty in U.S. District Court of failing to register for the draft.

The jury deliberated less than 10 minutes.

Judge Gordon E. Young let Mattin remain free on his own recognizance pending an appeal by his attorney, John Sizemore. Mattin testified that he had not registered for the draft and did not intend to.

"He is opposed to violence," Sizemore said. "He is opposed to war in any form and he is opposed to killing, and his conscience will not let him deal with any part of the system that makes these things possible."

Mattin, the leader of the Arkansas Peace Information Center, was arrested at his home Jan. 23 by three FBI agents.

Discredit Report Is Denied

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Omar Stevens, state supervisor of instruction for the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, denied a charge Wednesday that discredited his report on the Pulaski County School Board.

Mrs. Pat Mosher, president of the board, said warnings leveled at the board by an NCA committee and taken from Stevens' report "were not based on fact."

"On his own admission, the report was based on newspaper stories," Mrs. Mosher said. "He admitted that he had not even read the minutes of the board meetings."

"Mrs. Mosher has misrepresented the facts and hasn't told the truth," Stevens said later. Stevens said, however, that the information that he had received on the board's firing of Supt. Leroy Gattin was obtained from reports in the newspapers.

But citations and warnings he conveyed to the board and school administrators Monday were based on a report he had prepared in conjunction with the state Department of Education and the NCA, Stevens said.

The school board has until March 15 to reply to the 10 citations and 28 warnings issued by the state committee. The Pulaski County Teachers Association asked the NCA to investigate the situation in the district after disputes involving the board's refusal to renew the contract of Gattin.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

Dear Helen: We were working our ouiji board the other day, just for fun, and it spelled out, "Leave me alone." We kept on asking questions and suddenly a picture on the wall in back of us went sideways and I felt a cold chill down my back.

Ever since then it seems that someone is in the room with me when I'm alone. Doors slam by themselves, and even though I straighten that picture every day, it never stays straight.

Do you think I conjured up a ghost, and how can I get rid of him? I'm sure it's a "him." Maybe I'm a witch and don't know it.—SYBIL THE SECOND

Dear Sybil: Maybe you've been reading too many weird tales. They're fun if you don't take them seriously, but appears you're a patsy for the occult cult.

Look, Honey, the "supernatural" is a big fad now: A book store manager tells me it's replaced sex on best seller lists. And that's fine for a strong-minded person or pure nuts—but in-betweeners like you let it get to them, start "feeling" ghosts in the woodwork when a picture goes crooked.

A good rule: When your ouiji board puts chills down your back—give it to a friend.—H.

Dear Helen: I have a solution for the kids who get treated like dirt at stores—just because they're teens and therefore suspect. Why not specifically for young people, to show that they have been checked out and aren't shoplifters or property destroyers? Then, when clerks get mean or act like kids are bugs to be squashed, the teens can whip out their cards and maybe get some service.—BOB

Dear Bob: Sounds like a great idea. But somehow it's a sad commentary on the times when kids need Identification Cards to prove they aren't vandals.—H.

Dear Helen: I thought you'd like to know that something I read in your column finally broke my dad of the cigarette habit. . . I hope.

I got a pack of his cigarettes and wrote in red ink on every one competition.

The big day-time trend these days is toward soap-operas while the once popular game and panel shows seem to be fighting a losing battle. In the most recent Nielsen report on day-time programs, six of the top 10 are soaps, three are reruns of night-time comedy shows and just one—is a game show of sorts.

Most popular daytime program remains CBS's long-playing "As the World Turns," followed by its "Search for Tomorrow" and NBC's "Another World"—all washboard weepers. Then come reruns on CBS of "The Andy Griffith Show," "The Dick Van Dyke Show" and "Beverly Hillsbillies." Also in the elite group are CBS's "Love is a Many Splendored Thing" and "Edge of Night" in a tie, and NBC's "Days of Our Lives" and ABC's "Newlywed Game" in a tie.

These top rated shows have same rating compared to the evening programs. Each is seen by an estimated 10 to 15 percent of the nation's TV homes while a hot evening show like "Laugh-In" gets into well over 30 per cent.

of them such things as, "ONE DONE LUNG," "CANDER CHANCER," "COUGH COUGH," "WIDOW MAKER," "FROM COUGH-TO COFFIN," "INHALE AT YOUR OWN RISK," "SMOKE, CHOKE, CROAK," "TRY A BREATH MINT INSTEAD," "SMOKE GETS IN YOUR LUNGS," "EIGHT YEARS OFF YOUR LIFE," "AIR POLLUTION," "DANGER AHEAD," "WHEN YOU SMOKE THESE, WHEEZE!"

Dad is a cool head and doesn't get mad. When he started smoking the cigarettes at the office, everybody flipped including him. Then they got into a discussion about quitting, and five people make a bet—the first one to go back would buy dinner for the rest of them. They asked me to decorate one pack each for them to carry in their pockets. When they feel the urge, they show the cigarettes around—and put them back unused.

So far nobody has slipped, at least that the rest know about. —MEMBER OF NON-SMOKERS CLUB

PERSONAL TO TULLIA: Every normal person feels jealousy. The difference is: some hide it better than others. Leader types such as you are highly competitive, and usually a bit spoiled by easy conquests. So when your position seems threatened, you blow up a storm. YOUR Particular kind of jealousy is three-fourths fear, and if you don't learn to hide it—and laugh about it—that which you fear may come true.—H.

Combat Droopy Hair

If your hair is droopy and limp and loses its set almost immediately, it probably lacks body. Here are some ways to combat the "droopies."

Wind rollers smoothly and firmly and fasten them properly; try using a slightly smaller size roller; use a setting lotion made for hard-to-hold hair; use just enough hair spray to hold your hair without dampening it; use a hair dryer and make sure your hair is completely dry; switch to a cream rinse designed to add body. Most important of all, choose a simple style that's easy to maintain.

Powell Having Rough Time as Freshman

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harlem Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, who once headed one of the House's most important committees, apparently is finding it hard to work in Congress as a mere freshman member.

Democrat Powell who had to pay $25,000 to get back in the House after being expelled by his colleagues in 1967, has yet to attend a meeting of his old Education and Labor Committee, to which he was reassigned.

During 22 years in the House before he got into trouble over his use of committee funds, Powell never won any awards for his attendance and it looks as if nothing has changed.

Since the opening week of Congress Powell has not been seen on the House floor and calls to his office find him not in.

Instead, he has spent most of his time in Harlem, functioning as a one-man committee hearing complaints from his constituents about the poverty program.

And where most members introduce dozens of bills at the start of each session, Powell has put in only two—both of which would establish special committees with him as chairman.

Powell didn't even reply to a letter from Rep. Carl D. Perkins, D-Ky., who succeeded him as chairman of the Education and Labor Committee, asking what subcommittee assignments he wanted.

However, through an arrangement with the House Democratic leadership, Powell has a suite in the lavish Rayburn Building, directly above the one he had as chairman.

The arrangement doesn't set well with some of the newer members since office assignments are based on seniority and Powell supposedly lost his under the resolution by which he was fined and seated.

But the three-member committee that rules over such matters upheld his right to the office this week by a 2-1 vote. Speaker John W. McCormack and Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., cast the two votes, with Rep. William C. Cramer, R-Fla., dissenting.

The big blue marlin that Powell, the ardent sportsman, caught and had mounted in his office before his downfall, is back in place in his new office.

But the walls are bare of the plaques, awards and signed photographs of presidents and other dignitaries that used to be on display.

Also missing is the hum and excitement that used to mark the office of the chairman of one of the busiest committees of Congress.

OLAN REEVES

Olan "Butch" Reeves, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Olan Reeves, Hope, a senior of Hope High, represented the Hope Council of Garden Clubs at Prescott on Tuesday, February 25th.

Butch won Third in the Conservation Speech contest sponsored by the Arkansas Federation of Garden Clubs. This subject "Water the Life Blood of Civilization." The Hope Council presented Butch with $15.00 and Miss Eva Evans, State Conservation Chairman of the Federation presented him with $5.00 for winning Third at the District meeting. Miss Karen Bates, Hot Springs won First.

One Letter Was Important

NEW YORK (AP) — Two weeks ago, during the crippling snowstorm that struck the city, patrolman Michael Rafferty got his picture in the paper for helping a woman through the slush on East 42nd Street.

He got letters from as far away as South Carolina and Chicago praising him for his gallantry. He also got one from Washington, D.C.

"As I looked at the pictures last week showing you helping a lady through high water at the curb, I could not help but think that thoughtful public servants like you convey a feeling of concern for others which sets an example for us," the letter read.

It was signed, "Sincerely, Richard Nixon."

Bill in Favor of Motherhood

LANGSING, Mich. (AP) — A Democratic Rep. Nelis Saunders of Detroit introduced a resolution in favor of "motherhood" Wednesday in the Michigan Legislature.

The resolution called upon the Michigan Civil Service Commission to end what was described as its discriminatory application of civil service rules against pregnant female state employees.

Legislature Split on Beer Tax

By ED SHEARER
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The administration approved proposal to increase the beer tax by $2.50 cleared one house of the Arkansas General Assembly Wednesday but was defeated in the other.

The Senate passed its version of the bill 27-8 while the measure failed in the House on a 69-15 vote, with 75 needed for passage.

In other action, the House attached the emergency clause to the administration's local option mixed-drink bill and passed a form of the often defeated documentary stamp tax bill.

The Senate also cleared the way for final consideration of the administration's measure to increase the state tax on corporate income.

Sen. Richard Earl Griffin of Crossett, sponsor of the beer tax measure, said it would produce about $1.5 million in new revenue. It would increase the tax from $5 to $7.50 on a 32-gallon barrel of beer.

Rep. N. B. "Nap" Murphy of Hamburg, author of the House version, said the beer industry had agreed to the $2.50 as a compromise to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's request for a $5 increase.

The House attached the emergency clause to the mixed-drink bill on reconsideration. The vote was 74-16, with 67 votes needed.

The measure was then sent to the Senate where Sen. Guy "Mutt" Jones of Conway objected to the routine second reading of the bill and it could delay final consideration of it until early next week.

The latest documentary stamp tax proposal in the lower chamber called for a tax of 10 cents per $100 value on the transfer of property and the initial issuance of stocks in domestic corporations.

The bill, by Rep. James Shaver of Wynne, would produce an estimated $500,000 a year and would be earmarked for the state Publicity and Parks Commission for use in improving the state park system.

An amendment by Sen. J. Ed Lightle of Searcy to the corporate income tax bill was adopted by the upper chamber.

It would impose a tax of two per cent of the first $3,000 of a firm's taxable income, three per cent on the next $3,000, four per cent on the next $5,000, six per cent on the next $14,000 and seven per cent on all income in excess of $25,000.

The administration's original proposal was a flat seven per

Black Panther Leader Still Missing

By WILLIAM BARTON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — In the three months since Black Panther leader Eldridge Cleaver fled arrest in California authorities report no trace of him despite numerous leads and a search that has reached into other countries.

Officially, the FBI will say only that the case is under investigation.

But it is known that authorities are uncertain whether the 33-year-old self-educated Negro author, considered extremely dangerous by the FBI, carried out an implied threat to leave the country.

Just before dropping from sight Nov. 24, Cleaver said his only alternative to serving a jail sentence for violating parole was to "get out of the country."

That statement, some feel, could have been a smokescreen to draw investigators off Cleaver's path.

It is pointed out also that Cleaver's connections through the militant Black Panthers and Five Hope High School students will be leading discussion groups at the district student council convention Friday. They are Jimmy Alford, Mary Beth Millican, Dan Stuart, Juniors; Joe Fouse and Tommy Holt, Sophomores.

His 1968 presidential campaign — he polled 36,385 votes—gave him numerous allies in his effort to evade apprehension.

Moreover, the financial success of his book, "Soul on Ice," could provide him with the money that a life in hiding requires.

Added to these factors is Cleaver's natural intelligence, attested to by the fact that he rose during his years in prison from being a semi-literate to become a writer with critically acclaimed skill.

Cleaver disappeared two days before Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall denied a request for a stay that would have barred California officials from taking him into custody.

His wife, Kathleen, said Nov. 26 that the Black Panthers would keep her husband from going back to prison "by any means necessary."

Hope High School is the secretary-host school while Prescott High School will conduct the general assembly as president. Stamps High School, vice president, will be in charge of the installation; and Texarkana Arkansas High School will serve as reporter.

"Speak Out as Leaders of Today and as Leaders of Tomorrow" is the convention theme. The schedule includes a general assembly with Ellen Gordon of Prescott presiding and the HHS choir performing; group discussion sessions; and the nomination, election, and installation of officer schools.

At six o'clock the convention will move from the high school to the Town and Country Restaurant for a banquet. Lamar Cox, junior, will be presiding and George Frazier of Anderson-Frazier Insurance Agency will be guest speaker.

Advice from School Superintendent

A Newspaper Route is fine training for a boy

If your son ever talks to you about having a Newspaper Route, heed the words of Dr. Wayne M. Carle, superintendent of schools in Dayton, Ohio:

"A newspaper route is a manageable job for even our very young pupils.

"While the entry skills are minimal, however, the newspapers wisely provide an excellent orientation... and continuous appraisal to encourage good performance. They also emphasize maintaining good school records while managing the route.

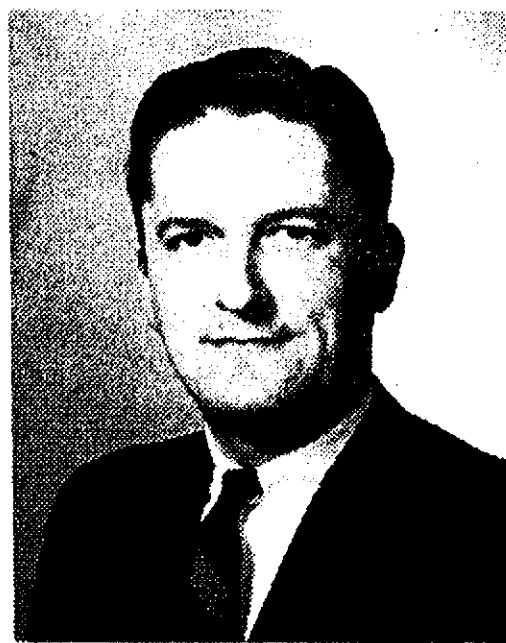

Route means growth

"Initiative is fostered not only by the earnings from expanding one's route sales but also from the incentives of contests and subscription campaigns. Boys are encouraged to consider a newspaper route not just for the immediate returns but for the growth it offers them toward future competency...

"Many of these boys become superlative managers of their money. The discipline of regular collections from customers and of meeting the bill from the newspaper are effective introductions to the keeping of accounts and the budgeting of expenditures.

Dollars in the Bank

"When Newspaperboy Awards are made, one of the most interesting aspects of the biographical sketches of the winners is the plans they have for college or advanced study. Nearly all these plans are fortified with hundreds of dollars in the bank—dollars that have been saved while carrying newspapers...

If you are a parent and, like Dr. Carle, can see in a newspaper route an opportunity for your son, our Circulation Department will be pleased to hear from you and from him. There may be a route open now or sometime in the near future. Call today.

Black Lashes Decision School Ruling

By BARRY SCHWEID Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP) — While his colleagues sat motionless or staring at the ceiling, Justice Hugo Black spent 20 minutes Monday blasting the Supreme Court decision allowing children to disregard their teachers' wishes and wear black armbands to school as a protest against the Vietnam war.

"I want it thoroughly known that I disclaim any sentence, any word, any part of what the Court does today," he declared. "I have always had the idea," he said, "that the schools were to educate children and not children to educate teachers."

This and other recent strident dissents had suggested Black is souring on the Court's sometimes libertarian stance and on the flourishing of protest movements across the land.

But in a birthday interview—Black is 83 today—the justice declared "I'm not mad at anybody at all."

"It's a wonderful world, a wonderful country and a wonderful court," he declared.

Did he despair for the future? Black replied: "If there is anyone in the world who dispairs less than I do I would like to see the color of his eyes so I can identify him."

In fact he said, with a twinkle, he might even receive a birthday card from a colleague or two.

"I would think they would be willing to acknowledge my birthday," he confided. His wife, Elizabeth, seated nearby, smiled.

Black, the third oldest justice in history, has served 31 and a half years—three years short of the record established in the 19th century by Justice Stephen J. Field.

"I have no desire to excell his longevity," Black said. And yet, as he always does, he disclaimed any immediate plan to retire.

"I have said I would when the time comes when I think I should," the justice said. "I have not been told it's time."

Black included in his optimism the quality of the men who will eventually take their place on the bench.

"This Court has been going on since the government began," he said. "They have always found good men to serve."

And Black said though he is "very sorry" to see Chief Justice Earl Warren to retire next June, he is convinced President Nixon, like any president, "is going to try to appoint good men to the court."

"I have no fear about the court being destroyed by new appointments," Black said.

In fact he said it wouldn't "bother" him if a nonlawyer is appointed someday. And, he added, he wouldn't be disappointed if Nixon fulfilled his promise to find "strict constructionists" to fill court vacancies.

Most important, he said, a new justice should have "intellectual honesty." Black added quickly: "And courage to do what he thinks is right."

Sentenced in Insurance Murder

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Paul S. Perveler has been sentenced to death in the gas chamber and his girl friend to life imprisonment for the double-indemnity insurance murders of their spouses.

Perveler, 31, was sentenced Tuesday by the jury which a week earlier convicted him of murdering his bride, Cheryl, 22, and murdering Kristina Cromwell's husband, Marlin, 27. The one-time insurance adjuster was also convicted of attempting to murder his first wife, Lela, 30.

The blonde Mrs. Cromwell, mother of a 6-year-old son, was convicted of conspiring with Perveler to kill her husband.

The seven-man, five-woman jury received the penalty phase of the trial Monday and deliberated a total of five hours.

The prosecution charged that Perveler and Mrs. Cromwell sought to collect up to $105,000 in double-indemnity life insurance.

Defense attorneys said they will appeal the convictions.

Maryland Governor GOP Head

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has solved his first major intraparty problem by naming Maryland Congressman Rogers C.B. Morton as GOP national chairman and relegating former campaign advisor Murray Chotiner to a nonpublic role. Morton told a news conference Wednesday he decided to take the job after he and Chotiner had "agreed that his (Chotiner's) experience and capacities could be better utilized elsewhere" than on the committee. Chotiner managed Nixon's campaigns until 1956 when a Senate investigating committee called him on the carpet for alleged influence peddling. He had predicted he would operate the committee as executive director while the new chairman would devote his time primarily to making speeches. Morton denied making any "stipulations" or imposing "restrictions" on his acceptance of the Chairmanship, succeeding Ray Bliss. That wasn't quite the way many high ranking Republicans heard it. Their version was this: President Nixon had told Chotiner he wanted him to be the executive director of the committee. But Morton balked at having the Los Angeles lawyer run the show while he served as front man. Presidential assistants assured Morton, who was floor manager for Nixon at the Miami Beach, Fla., nominating convention, that he wouldn't have to take Chotiner if he took the chairmanship. But Morton insisted he wanted direct word from Nixon that Chotiner would not be on the committee. Morton got that word Wednesday when Herbert G. Klein, the administration's director of communications, announced from the White House that Nixon was recommending the towering Maryland congressman—6-feet-6, 225 pounds—for chairman and Chotiner would not be with the committee.
